

Helping military Christians follow Jesus Christ in armed forces around the world.

Are you passionate about seeing military personnel disciplined to live out their Christian life amongst international forces across three continents?

Military Ministries International (MMI) is accepting applications for the position of Chief Executive/Team Leader. The ideal candidate for this leadership position will be a military veteran, mature Christian, with a focus on providing vision and leadership for a unique international Christian ministry opportunity.

Organizational Information:

MMI is a non-profit, non-denominational, U.K. based international ministry that assists in the development of Christian leaders in the armed forces of Europe, The Middle East, Africa and South Asia and in the establishment and growth of Military Christian Fellowships (MCFs).

Work Location/Hours:

May operate out of the home office in Aldershot, or work remotely from own home location, in consultation with trustees. Includes extensive U.K. and international travel. Part time post of 20-25 hours.

Starting Date:

The successful applicant could begin work at any time between 1 March 2025 to 31 July 2025 following the retirement of Maj Gen Roddy Porter.

Who should apply?

This position requires dedication to the mission and frequent travel. It offers satisfaction and fulfillment in serving Christ, and its true compensation is the spiritual blessing of working to further Christ's kingdom here on earth.

As a non-profit organization ministering to international military personnel, our goal is to help Christians follow Jesus Christ in their nations' armed forces.

If you share that goal and want to find out more, download the Candidate Information Pack from the QR Code below.

<https://acrobat.adobe.com/id/urn:aaid:sc:EU:d392ff46-e3b0-4e49-8448-f547120c4ad3>