PART ONE

IN CHRIST

The Bible, particularly the prophet Isaiah, the gospels and letters of Paul, talks of an intimate relationship of being 'in' God and 'in' Christ. This module looks at this relationship, how it is lived out in daily life and what is the hope for the future.

Reminder :

Think about the Question, ask the Lord to help you understand His word with brief prayer. Read the Bible verses and briefly note what they mean and how you could apply them in your life. What does it say? What does it mean? What does it mean to me?

1.What kind of relationship can I have with God?

Think about your relationships with your family, friends and military colleagues. How do they differ? Then think about your relationship with God. What is the basis for our relationship with God?

Read :

- a. Luke 11:2
- b. Ps 23:1
- c. 1 John 4:7-12

Notes :

--	--

2. How do we enter into a relationship with God?

In other words "What is a Christian?" Some people might believe they are Christian because their father or mother is a Christian, some might believe they are Christian because they were born into a Christian country, area or social group. Look at these Bible references to understand how the Bible explains what it is to have a relationship with God. i.e. to be 'In Christ'.

Read:

- a. John 1:12-13
- b. John 3:3
- c. John 3:14-17
- d. Rom 3:21-24
- e. Acts 19:4-6

Notes:

3. How do we live a Christian life?

Our lives tend to be motivated by ambition and achievement. Action and activity look for results and rewards. The relationship with our friends and colleagues is probably in some way based on merit. Is the Christian life similar or different, and how should we live it in this world?

Read:

- a. Eph 2:6-7
- b. Phil 4:4-9
- c. Is 40:28-31
- d. Eph 6:10-18
- e. John 16:33

Notes:

--	--

4. What is our relationship to others?

Our relationship with other people is important. What is a sign of the Kingdom of God? In whom is our unity to be found?

Read:

- a. Luke 10:27
- b. John 17:20-23
- c. Gal 3:26-29

Notes:

--	--

5. What is our 'hope' for the future?

Paul claims that 'in' Christ we shall all be made alive. How does this give us hope for the future? Does this hope help us live out our Christian life?

Read:

- a. 1 Cor 15:20-22
- b. Phil 3:10-11

PRAYER

Prayer is our natural communication, expressing our relationship with, and dependence on, our Heavenly Father. He speaks to us in many ways, but particularly through His Word. We respond through prayer. This module is very basic - there are many books on this subject.

Reminder :

Think about the Question, ask the Lord to help you understand His word with brief prayer. Read the Bible verses and briefly note what they mean and how you could apply them in your life. What does it say? What does it mean? What does it mean to me?

1.How should we pray?

The disciples asked Jesus this very question.

Read :

- a. Eph 3:12
- b. Matt 6:6-15
- c. Rom 8:26, 27
- d. Heb 7:25
- e. John 17:9

Notes :

2. Why do we pray?

Here are just a few verses that each illustrate a particular reason to pray - there are many more you will notice as you study the Bible.

Read :

- a. Luke 22:46
- b. Acts 4:24
- c. Acts 6.6
- d. Acts 7:59

- d. 2 Cor 1:8-11

7. Conversational prayer

This is a form of corporate (group) prayer.

Read :

- a. Matt 18:19-20
- b. 1 Cor 14:40

Notes :

There is so much more that could be said about prayer and you may know of Scriptural references that speak clearly on the above or other aspects of prayer. Please share these with your friends when you get together to discuss this module. The subject of prayer is infinite as it deals with the unfathomable depth of God's love for us and our relationship with such a loving Father. The last part of this module has just a few examples of prayer including that of our Lord after the last supper and before His crucifixion.

8. Examples of prayer

There are several prayers in Scripture that help us to understand the nature, purpose and need for this vital communication with our Father.

- b. Eph 3:14-21
- c. Acts 4:23-31
- d. Ps 139, 140 etc.

DUTY AND AUTHORITY

How should you behave towards those in authority over you, and also to those under your authority?

The Bible demands acceptance of wider responsibilities than just those amongst your family, friends or colleagues. (Consider also Acts 4:19 and Exodus 1:17)

1 Pet 2 13-17

- b. Eph 1:19-21
- c. Matt 22:37-40
- d. 1 John 4:19-21
- e. Rom 13:1-2

Notes :

Cultural note:

In New Testament times, slavery was an accepted economic system. It was honoured even though at times it led to abuse. Slaves had no rights to property or inheritance. It is important to understand that in God's sight we are all equal (Gal 3:26-29), with no rights or inheritance because all that we have is given by God. Paul was proud to be a doulos (slave/servant) of Jesus Christ (Phil 1:1 etc). Peter, James, and Jude called themselves doulos in their respective letters. Even Jesus was called the doulos of God (Phil 2:6-7).

So the passages, although referring to behaviour in relations between masters and slaves or servants, illustrate the way we should behave towards those around us in whatever position. Our Lord set this example just before He gave His life for us - John 13:14-17. A clear example of this in practice is Rom 15:8-9.

Personal response:

CONFIDENCE IN BATTLE

“Anyone who says they are not afraid in battle is either a liar or a fool.” (Anon). If we are to succeed in battle we need to have confidence that we can achieve the stated outcome. To have confidence in the worldly battle we must win the spiritual battle, which is much more difficult. In this module we discover how we can win the spiritual battle and thus prepare for the worldly battle so that we can face any challenge with courage.

Reminder :

Think about the Question, ask the Lord to help you understand His word with brief prayer. Read the Bible verses and briefly note what they mean and how you could apply them in your life. What does it say? What does it mean? What does it mean to me?

1.What is your greatest fear in battle?

In physical battle is it your fear of death, killing, failure, pain, capture or something else? What is your greatest fear in the “spiritual” battle?

Read :

a. Matt 10:28

Notes :

2.How do we overcome the natural fear of death?

This fear is not only in battle but is held by all who contemplate death without Christ.

- b. 1 Cor 15:51-54
- c. Phil 1:21
- d. John 14:2-3

Notes :

3. How do we overcome the fear of failure?

Read:

- a. Ps 91

Notes:

--	--

CHURCH OR FELLOWSHIP?

As military people (and families) we will not always be able to choose where we serve and where we live. Civilians may be able to choose a town, a house or flat, and a church, but we often cannot. What should we do when this happens? When we deploy on operations we may be lucky to have a Chaplain with our unit or nearby, but he may belong to a different denomination/confession/Christian tradition. What do we do when this happens?

Reminder :

Think about the Question, ask the Lord to help you understand His word with brief prayer. Read the Bible verses and briefly note what they mean and how you could apply them in your life. What does it say? What does it mean? What does it mean to me?
